MODERN APOTHEGMS.

Be honest and you will be poor.
Be virtuous and you will be suspected.
Be prosperous and you will have friends.
Be unfortunate and you will have enemies.
Return evil for good, for this is the way of the world.
Trust all men who profess friendship, for few are faithless.
Be tender hearted and loving and you will be called "a weak brother."
Speak good of no man; otherwise, it will be said you expect a favor from him.
Despise petty pilfering, for a man is measured by the greatness of his "grab."
Be deceitful and practise dissimulation and you will be noted for your shrewdness.
Endure with meekness the abuse of the borrower, for abuse is your legitimate reward.
If you want to be distinguished for qualities which you do not possess, never act out of your true character.
If you have been guilty of a great wrong to another, always condemn a similar offence committed by others.
If you wish to gain reputation as an independent man and a reformer, condemn the press for its "venality."
If you like to be envied by "the boys" parade your vices, for virtuous men are always stupid and unattractive.
If you wish to be regarded as "a man of liberal views," ridicule christianity and always refer to the clergy with contemptuous sarcasm.

THE DRUNKARD'S DAUGHTER.

A Detroiter was sent to the house of correction, for habitual drunkenness. The wife, a hard-working woman, and sorely afflicted in health, managed to provide food and fuel for herself and child until death came to end the struggle. The little girl hardly eight years old was all alone in the house when her mother died. The event occured at dark, and at midnight the child was heard singing in the darkness. A pedestrian who halted, heard her say:

"Mother, won't you wake up and light the lamp? If you will, I will sing some more?"

Suspecting what had happened, he roused some of the neighbors; and, as they went in, the child sat in the darkness, holding its mother's cold hand, and singing:

The Lord will lead a little child
And teach me how to pray.

A dark room, death on the bed, poverty, hunger, and cold to make her situation more desolate, and yet the child of shadows was not afraid. She said:

"I kept still a long while to let mother sleep. Then I sang all my songs to keep me awake. Then I looked out of the window and didn't move, so that the angels wouldn't be afraid to come and talk to her and make her smile! I wish God had made more daylight for poor folks!"—Detroit Free Press.

BE YOUR OWN RIGHT-HAND MAN.

People who have been bolstered up all their lives are seldom good for anything in a crisis. When misfortune comes, they look around for somebody to cling to or lean upon. If the prop is not there, down they go. Once down they are helpless as a capsized turtle, and they cannot find their feet again, without assistance. Such persons no more resemble men who have fought their way to position, making difficult [illegible] ... [illegible] mount to their position by the help of leverage; they leaped the chasm, grappled with the opposing rocks, avoided avalanches and when the goal was reached felt that, but for the toil that had strengthened them as they strove, it could never have been obtained.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

The Journal says that the funeral of the late Israel Washburn, senior, was attended at the Universalist church, (Norlands) Livermore, Monday afternoon. Rev. Wm. A. Drew of Augusta conducted the services. There was a large attendance of relatives, friends and citizens to pay their last respects to the memory of the deceased.

Aroostook.

The Presque Isle Star says that the burglars have carried on quite a business since last week. Many houses have been visited and money in various sums stolen. F. A. Soule of this village found one of the gentlemen in his stable a few nights since, and they have been seen in many places. The excitement is somewhat subsiding, but the public is visited by a greater danger in the shape of cloth peddlers.

The Houlton Pioneer says that the crops not already gathered are so far matured that frost, which has not yet put in an appearance, can do very little damage. We hope those who shudder at the thoughts of life in Aroostook will find no worse climate than ours. Barns cannot contain the bountiful crops of hay and grain gathered this season.

Cumberland.

The store of Robert Costello in Portland, was entered Tuesday night and over $100 worth of revolvers and cutlery was taken.

A change takes place in the Eastern Express office at Portland, James N. Winslow, the present manager retiring, and Col. H. S. Osgood of Augusta taking his place.

Franklin.

Frost was seen in several places at Wilton, Tuesday. Somehow autumn comes with the latter end before as regards the weather. The farmers are gathering sweet corn and hauling to the factory. The yield is fair. Considerable sickness prevails.

Kennebec.

Tuesday evening a man named Peterson, living in Augusta, fell while assisting in carrying a stove into a house, and almost instantly expired. His age was about forty-five.

The Journal says at Gardiner the dealers are selling coal at $5.50, delivered.

The Gardiner Journal says that on Wednesday morning last a widow lady named Burgess, residing on Water street, next door to Mr. Freeman Patten, died very suddenly of heart disease. She was about the house at her accustomed duties when taken and expired in a few minutes after. Her age was 66 years.

Capt. Rich shipped in the month of August, from Farmingdale, Pittston, Richmond and Dresden, 60 cargoes, or about 20,000 tons of ice. Three fourths of it went from his Farmingdale houses. He also shipped four cargoes from Small Point.

A crew at the Dresden Ice Co's houses, one day last week, run out 93 tons of ice in one hour, over one slip. This is claimed to be the quickest running on the Kennebec this season.

The Journal says: Undoubtedly the profits of the ice business the present season, on the Kennebec river, have assisted a good many business men in bridging over financial chasms, and put a great amount of money into the pockets of deserving laborers. Every ton of ice, before it leaves the Kennebec, represents about one dollar in labor and cost of housing; so from this statement some idea may be obtained of the amount of money that has this season been brought to the Kennebec from abroad, by this one article of commerce alone.

The Augusta Journal says: A printer tramp who has been at work in this city lately "subbing," has had a wind-fall, and become the happy possessor of several thousand dollars, left him by a relative. He left on Thursday last for Fredericton, N. B., to become the recipient of the money.

Waldo.

The house of Richmond Green of Searsmont, was burned, with nearly all its contents, Friday eve Sept. 1 at 6 o'clock. The fire took upon the roof. It was partially insured.

Fires are raging in the woods at Freedom.——Water power still holds out.——There will be no fall term of the academy. The horse-ail is prevailing at Brooks. Large ulcers gather at the roots of the tongue and are dangerous.——Business dull and quiet.——Rain is much needed.

An old man by the name of Boothby, of Freedom, who recently lost all his property by the fire there, has been stopping recently at his his daughter's, Mrs. Augustine Blethen, of Thorndike. The loss of his property and the prospect of living upon the charity of others, so affected his mind that be attempted to cut his throat with his pocket knife, and so injured himself that his wounds will probably prove fatal.

Col. J. D. Porter of Burlington, writes to the Boston Journal concerning the first ship owned on the Penobscot above the Bay, as follows:

Her register lies before me, given by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, October 28, 1784, signed by John Hancock, Governor; John Avery, Jr., Secretary; Samuel Whitemore, Naval Officer. Her name was the Black Bird, built at Beverly and owned by Peter Coffin of Gloucester. B. Titcomb, Jr., Naval Officer of Newburyport, certifies, May 10, 1785, that she was sold to Stephen and Ralph Cross of Newburyport. George Billings, Naval Officer of the port of Penobscot (Castine), certifies, November 7, 1785, that "Charles Blackden is now the master," she having been previously bought of the Messrs. Cross by Col. Jona. Eddy of Eddington, a distinguished officer in the French and Revolutionary wars, who was the founder of the town of Eddington, Me.

The second vessel owned and the first vessel built was built by Deacon William Boyd, at Bangor, for Major Robert Treat, and launched in 1791.

The second vessel built on the river and at Bangor was by Deacon William Boyd, who contracted, April 20, 1763, to build a vessel of about 100 tons, for Dr. Oliver Mann and Hudson Bishop of Penobscot (Castine). Deacon Bayd and "those who wrought with" him protested, June 25, 1792, that Mann & Bishop did not furnish material fast enough to carry on the ship.

TOO FAT.—The Springfield Republican notes a significant change in the demand for fat meat. A few years since, it says, when a large part of the beef used was fattened hereabouts, it was almost impossible to get an ox too fat, and an extra price was always paid for the fine steers that came from the rich bottom land of the Connecticut and Westfield rivers. But, with the incoming of Western beef, the demand for very fat cattle has fallen off, till now they can hardly find a market. Only last week a farmer with two pairs of fat oxen, weighing 4000 pounds each, was refused an offer at the principal slaughter-houses, solely because his cattle were too fat.

FRESH PRUNES.—Yesterday morning the female head of a family called at a grocery and asked for prunes. Some prunes were exhibited, and she inquired:
"Do you warrant them?"
"We do," was the reply.
"Perfectly fresh, are they?"
"Indeed they are."
"No worms in them?"
"Not a worm."
"Full weight, are they?"
"Full weight, madam."
"Sweet, are they?"
"I warrant them sweet."
"No pits in them?"
"Not a pit, madam."
"And a prize package with every pound?" she asked, after a pause.
"Yes, madam."
"And a chromo, too?" she hesitatingly inquired.
"Yes, and a chromo too."
She nibbled at a prune, knit her brows, and finally asked:
"Don't you give a cash premium with every pound you sell?"
We do, madam. You pay ten cents for a pound of prunes and get a chromo, a prize package, and a cash premium of fifty cents! Shall I do you up a pound?"
"Well, it seems as if you wanted to be fair with your customers," she slowly replied; "but I guess I won't take any. Seems to me ten cents per pound is rather too much for prunes these times, when butter is down and calico is down, and shoes are awful cheap."

The farm at the Connecticut Agricultural College is more than paying current expenses, under the management of farmer Southwick. None of the $2000 appropriated by the trustees to pay farm hire has been drawn, and, as the busiest season is over, probably none of it will be required. Like all others in the vicinity, it has suffered from the drought, but on the whole, crops are lookinging better than the average. Corn and turnips promise a heavy yield. All the hay, 115 tons, was harvested without wetting, and the oat crop yields some 500 or 600 bushels; 1000 bushels of turnips to the acre are expected from one field, and several tons of carrots and one acre of late cabbages are all looking well. Improvements are still in progress on the grounds east of the dormitories.

When young Hopeful entered Harvard College he wrote to his parents that he must have a study table. It was given. When the parent visited the room a year afterward he inspected the table. There were marks as if of tumblers. He simply said, "I judge, my boy, that your rank in your class will not be very high." "Why, father, how can you tell?" "The carpet under the table is not worn at all, but the covering is a good deal defaced." The old gentleman was a collegian himself once.

ADVICE.—The Flemingsburg Rambler has a department of "answers to correspondents." In reply to C. W. the Rambler says: "If you love the lady, and she loves you, we see no reason why you shouldn't marry—provided you are each worth $50,000. But if you own nothing but a standing collar and a spur, and she has nothing but a box of hairpins and a pair of striped stockings, why, don't do it."

This is an Omaha personal item: "Stare-Every-Woman-in-the-Face, a young, brave who loafs around the streets, has not yet left for the summer. He belongs to the Id-i-ot tribe."

The effort to render fashionable those collars that break over at the ends was a failure; only a broken down man looks well in them.

A country editor, in speaking of a steamboat, says: "She had twelve berths in her ladies' cabin." "Oh, life of me," exclaimed an old lady, on reading the above, "what a squalling there must have been."

That farmer understood human nature who said: "If you want your boy to stay at home don't bear too hard on the grindstone when he turns the crank."

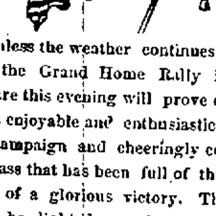
The Closing Rally To-Night.



Unless the weather continues unfavorable the Grand Home Rally in Abbott Square this evening will prove one of the most enjoyable and enthusiastic events of the campaign and cheeringly conclude a canvass that has been full of the inspirations of a glorious victory. The Square will be lighted up by a number of large locomotive reflectors and by Chinese lanterns, and there will be a display of fireworks and music by the Bangor Cornet Band. The meeting will be opened promptly at half-past seven o'clock, when brief rallying speeches will be made by the gentlemen elsewhere announced. Delegations with torches, from Waterville, Pittsfield and Dexter are expected, who will be given a collation at City Hall prior to the parade. Our Brewer friends are also expected to join the demonstration with their Campaign Club.

The Companies will assemble near the City Hall, at 8 o'clock, to form the line, which will be under command of Col. E. E. Small and the Staff of the Bangor Hayes and Wheeler Battalion. The line will move across Kenduskeag Bridge and up Harlow street to Abbott Square, where the Cornet Band, at the close of the speaking, will take the head of the column, and the procession will then march across Fraklin street bridge and over the following route which has been arranged by the officers.

ROUTE OF PROCESSION.

Up Hammond to Court; up Court to Boynton; through Boynton to Ohio; down Ohio to Hammond; up Hammond to Fifth; through Fifth to Cedar; down Cedar to Third; through Third to Clinton to High; through High to First; out First to Cedar; down Cedar to Summer; through Summer to Union; up Union to Main; down Main to Kenduskeag Bridge; up State to Fern; countermarch down State to Grove; up Grove to Somerset; down Somerset to Broadway; up Broadway to Cumberland; down Cumberland to French; down French to State, to West Market Square.

Our Republican citizens are expected to illuminate along the line of march and it is hoped that the ladies especially will come out to see the "Hayes and Wheeler Boys" and show their sympathy for the cause.

Several hundred torches are required by the uniformed companies will be furnished to Republican citizens who may wish to join the march.

The route has been made as extensive as circumstances would admit, and on the streets designated also in the [illegible] be avoided.

If the weather should unfortunately prevent the out-door demonstration the Republicans of Bangor are invited to assemble in City Hall at 8 o'clock for a Closing Rally!

Our Candidates!

The very large and earnest gathering of Republicans in Norombega Hall last evening, despite the stormy weather, was in itself a promise of the victory we are to win on Monday next. The selection of candidates was made with the best of feeling and the nominations are all that could be desired. We have only now to elect them by a handsome majority to insure creditable and efficient representation of the interests of our community in the State Legislature.

The re-nomination of EDWARD B. NEALLEY, ESQ., was a merited recognition of marked ability and a spontaneous expression of approval of the faithfulness, intelligence and zeal with which he discharged the duties of Representative at the State Capital last winter. His talents obtained him prompt recognition as one of the leading young men of the State, and his re-election will give him a commanding position in the next House.

In LYSANDER STRICKLAND, ESQ., our citizens recognize one of our leading business men, who has been active and prominent in all our affairs for many years, and who enjoys in a high degree the confidence and esteem of the community. Repeatedly called to service in our City Government, he is familiar with all our interests, and his standing as a citizen of Bangor will give him influence and respect in the State Legislature.

HENRY LORD, ESQ., has for several years been recognized as one of our most prominent young Republicans, and has hitherto been called to public position which he has filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents. As President of the Common Council he obtained a special knoweldge of the municipal affairs of the city, and the ability with which he discharged the duties of that office, affords a guarantee of his efficiency in a new field of legislation.

The nominations are all that could be desired, and the brief speeches of the candidates last evening had the true ring of men who respect the confidence of their fellow citizens, who respect themselves, and who regard the interests of this community as their own. We feel that a word of hearty commendation is due to the spirit of harmony and the abnegation of personal feeling in the interests of the Republican cause, manifested by Mr. Hubbard in his graceful withdrawal from the field of candidacy and by Mr. Snow in his manly and eloquent appeal for a rousing support of the candidates chosen.

The Republicans of Bangor appreciate the importance of the election, and we hope that each and every one will put his heart and energy into practical effort to bring out our solid vote and achieve an overwhelming triumph on Monday!

Be Vigilant in Close Representative Districts.

The Democratic leaders have hardly attempted to conceal their organized effort to capture close Representative Districts by using all the means in their power. Our Republican friends in all the towns should be vigilant and active in counteracting the designs of the enemy. Look out for spurious tickets, and see that every vote is polled for the Republican candidate for the Legislature.

The Antic Tarbox.

In its account of the recent Massachusetts Democratic Convention at Worcester, the New York Tribune thus describes the appearance of the "late Mr. Tarbox," whose seat in Congress has been spoken of as "vacant," ever since he was "wiped out" by Messrs. Blaine and Frye of this State. The political remnants of Tarbox will exhibit here this evening and this description by the Tribune may be of interest:

"Then up jumped the Hon. Mr. Tarbox, with his long black hair hanging about his shoulders and his spectacles at a convenient angle of his nose. It had been one of the noisiest Conventions ever held, but the delegates realized at once that here was a man who could beat them at that little game, and so they threw up their heads and listened. He threw back his head and roared at them. He told them they had laid their best-beloved on the altar, that they must repudiate what was done by the party in Buchanan's time, and that one Butler had once gone to Charleston and betrayed his party. After this jack-in-the-box had popped up and down the platform for half an hour, the Convention adjourned."

Soldiers Read This!

The Democratic reduction cut down the appropriation for supplying disabled soldiers with artificial legs and arms to $60,000. This amount will be entirely exhausted by next Tuesday, before supplying more than one-quarter of those entitled. Notices will be sent next week to the rest of the applicants stating that no action can be taken in their cases until Congress shall provide a deficiency appropriation. Surgeon General Barnes has estimated for a deficiency of $250,000. The attempt of the Democrats to make capital among the soldiers was too thinly disguised. The law was passed declaring that soldiers were entitled to the legs, but the money was not appropriated to pay for them.

"The Rag Baby."

Last Monday evening the Peter Cooper "greenback" men of Skowhegan, nominated as their candidate for the Legislature Capt. Enos Field. On Thursday night the Democrats of the town went into caucus and ratified the nomination of their greenback allies, indorsing the "rag baby" doctrines, candidate and all. They will hurrah for "Tilden and Hard Money" and vote for Field and inflation.

The Commercial naturally indulges in slurs at the Hayes and Wheeler excursionists to Portland. The Press of that city, however, highly compliments the fine appearance and behavior of the delegation.

EVERY REPUBLICAN OF MAINE SHOULD [illegible]

"COLONEL" FELLOWS.

Some Biographical Sketches!

A Northern Renegade and a Southern Traitor.

A Tool of the Tammany Ring.

THE CRONY AND EULOGIST OF TWEED.

HE CHAMPIONS THE RING ROBBERS LONG AFTER THEIR FULL EXPOSURE.

A Sweet Advocate of "Honesty and Reform."

As "Col." J. R. Fellows and his Bangor sponsor, the Commercial, very indignantly complained of an erroneous reference to his record in our columns, we have taken some pains to look up the history of that individual's career as set forth in the public prints, and we present herewith some biographical sketches which cannot fail to be of interest to a community where he is to be put forward as a political instructor and an exponent of Democratic "Honesty and Reform!"

We find that in one respect we have hitherto failed to do him justice, having treated of him as a Southern Rebel "to the manner born," whereas it appears that he was a traitor without even the flimsy excuse of sectional allegiance, but combined the infamy of a renegade with the crime of treason. At the close of the Rebellion he came North and by reason of his disloyalty and readiness to become the tool of corruptionists obtained the favor of the Tweed Ring of plunderers, who were then holding their high carnival of robbery in New York. He was the associate and crony of Tweed, Connolly, Genet and the rest of the villainous gang, in the wort phase of their career, and clung to the fortunes of the Ring long after a full public exposure of the gigantic frauds. More than this, he brazenly volunteered as the public and fulsome eulogist of TWEED and his gang, at a time when the whole country was standing aghast at the astounding revelations of their unparalleled crimes of corruption and plundering.

Indeed he has never wavered in his allegiance to Tammany, and since Tweed's overthrow has been the zealous follower and henchman of Tweed's successor, John Kelly; lobbying at Albany against the New Charter, and other measures for the public protection, and aiding the Tammany leaders to smuggle through legislation in the interest of the "bucket shops" and slums of New York city.

The proposition that such a man should profane the ceremonies of dedicating a monument to the gallant Ellsworth, by delivering the oration, brought out an indignant protest from the loyal community, which found expression in the extracts which we copy from the newspapers of that time. As "Col." Fellows and his indorsers have complained of a technical mistake in referring to his record, we give him the benefit of the statements and opinions of papers published where he is well known, all the following extracts having appeared in the colums of the New York Times.

After reading them our citizens can judge of the qualifications of "Col." Fellows as a "Reform" champion, and of the effrontery of the Democratic leaders in bringing him to instruct the people of Maine how to vote:

[From the N. Y. Times, April 29, 1874.]

COL. FELLOWS—THE THIEVES' ADVOCATE.

"A BLATHERSKITE AND DEMAGOGUE."

There is to be an Ellsworth monument, to be inaugurated at Mechanicsville shortly, and one Colonel Fellows is said to be the orator singled out to do the honors of the occasion. To this the Troy Times objects and says that "the Union soldier who will consent to take part in any such commemorative ceremonies with this rebel blatherskite and Tammany politician degrades his office and falsifies his patriotism." And it goes on to express its opinion that "no greater insult could be paid to the ashes of the patriot dead than the presence even of this miserable rebel and demagogue at the inauguration of the monument."

The Albany Argus very naturally objects to these remarks and yet the Troy Times is quite right in making them.—"Col." Fellows is both a "blatherskite and a demagogue" and about the last man in the world who should be chosen to do honor to the memory of a good citizen.

FELLOWS THE EULOGIST OF TWEED.

In the very last days of the Tweed rule, MONTHS AFTER THE FULL EXPOSURE OF THE TAMMANY FRAUDS had startled the world Fellows appeared on the Tweed Plaza in this city and made a long and DISGRACEFUL SPEECH IN PRAISE OF TWEED, describing him as a man whom the country ought to honor as a great benefactor to New York and altogether AS A STATESMAN WITHOUT EQUAL IN THE NATION! This, be it remembered, was in the early part of November, 1871, five months after Tweed's rascalities had been fully exposed, and on the eve of the election which destroyed him and his party. Now, is this the proper man to pronounce an oration on a gallant Union soldier like Col. Ellsworth? We will not lay stress upon the fact that while Col. Ellsworth was defending the flag of his country, the so-called "Col." Fellows was a rebel, because it seems to be unfashionable to refer to "rebels" in the present day. But is it decent to see A SUPPORTER OF WHOLESALE ROBBERY AND PILLAGE chosen to deliver an address upon the memory of a man who was as much opposed to dishonesty as "Col." Fellows was in favor of it.

[From the New York Times, May 1, 1874.]

TRAITOR AND ASSOCIATE OF THIEVES.

Let us for a moment consider the case of this young man, Col. Fellows. Born, we believe, in Mechanicsville, certainly in this northern land; enjoying the advantages of our common schools, drawing in with every inspiration of the pure air of his native land the loftiest principles of liberty, he goes South, and there, after a brief residence among a strange people, becomes a traitor to his country. He takes up arms against his own kindred. He wars upon every interest, every right, every hope of his old friends and neighbors. He tells us he would rather "rot in prison" than take the oath of allegiance to his country. He becomes the most despicable of all creatures—a Northern man with Southern principles, a man without soul, a wretch who has sold himself, his home, his kindred, everything, and literally becomes an outcast. When the war is over and he speaks back to the State he deserted, the mother who bore him, he offers no word of apology, no expression of regret, but glories in his shame. And when [illegible] what associates did he [illegible]? Who were his companions and friends? Tweed, [illegible] Genet, Norton, Connolly, Fields, [illegible] volunteer in its defence. He leads the van of all the sickening train of slaughtered martyrs. He is borne to his home tenderly and tearfully. A nation stops in the midst of a great war to mourn beside his early grave. Fellows, his youthful companion, where is he? In the Rebel army, rejoicing, we doubt not, that Ellsworth is dead; regretting, we fear, that the opportunity had not come to him to flesh his maiden sword in the heart of the young hero. Now we are told it would be a very gracious and beautiful act of forgiveness, of reconciliation, of love, to invite Colonel Fellows to speak beside the grave of Ellsworth. We don't believe it. We think it would be an act of infamy, of sacrilege, an insult to the memory of the dead. The spectacle would be that of a jackal glorifying over the corpse of the being he had slain. If there is no one else to pronounce the "eulogy" better let the young hero sleep in peace.—Troy Times, April 29th, 1874.

ANOTHER NEW YORK OPINION.

"Col." J. R. Fellows, a red-mouthed rebel sympathiser and demagogue, is anxious to make a speech over the dead body of his schoolmate, Col. Ellsworth, whose monument at Mechanicsville is to be inaugurated on the 27th of May. We don't know that there is any reason why the "Colonel"—nobody even knew what regiment he was "Colonel" of—should not be allowed to drop his tear and unbosom his grief over the grave of the Union soldier whose cause he opposed and reviled, but for appearance sake, he should do this quietly and in the presence of a very select audience—say on some dark evening and in the solitude of his own congenial company. This fellow, Fellows' character is such that if he is allowed to take a conspicuous part in the ceremonies, the circumstance would detract from the honor designed the gallant dead.—Newburg Journal.

"A SHADE OF DISGRACE."

A letter from a citizen of Mechanicsville follows in which he says that "the announcement that he (Fellows) was to be the author, fell like a thunder-bolt on the loyal and better class of this community, who have had but little to do with the arrangements and consider the selection of this renegade as orator as a burning shame which would cast a shade of disgrace over our delightful village."

[N. Y. Times, Sept. 2, 1875.]

TAMMANY'S GRATITUDE.

Mayor Wickham offered the post of Corporation Attorney to the so-called "Col." Fellows. The last appearance of this person in public life occurred in November, 1871, when he made a speech at the "Tweed Plaza," PRAISING TWEED AND SWEENY AS THE MOST BENEFICENT AND ACCOMPLISHED RULERS EVER PLACED IN AUTHORITY OVER A GREAT CITY. THIS WAS LONG AFTER THE PROOFS of THE RING FRAUDS HAD BEEN PLACED BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

Republicans, Beware of Spurious Tickets.

We are informed that extraordinary efforts are being made by some persons in this county to induce Republicans to cast a Spurious Republican ballot—a ballot printed in the same style of the regular Republican ticket, with the name of some Republican nominee left out and an opposition name printed in its place!

The Republican Ticket.

We give below the full Republican ticket for Penobscot County, in order that the voters may not be imposed upon by mixed or misspelled ballots:

For Governor,

Selden Connor.

For Representative to Congress,
LLEWELLYN POWERS.
For Senators,
JOSEPH S. WHEELWRIGHT.
THOMAS J. PEAKS.
ALEXANDER WEBB.
J. WYMAN PHILLIPS.
For County Treasurer,
HORACE J. NICKERSON.
For Judge of Probate,
JOHN E. GODFREY.
For County Attorney,
JASPER HUTCHINGS.
For Sheriff,
SIMON G. JERRARD.
For Clerk of Courts,
JAMES H. BURGESS.
For County Commissioner,
JOHN KIMBALL.
For Representative to the Legislature,

To Absent Republicans.

Every Republican voter of Maine who is temporarily absent should feel it his duty to return home to vote next Monday. The Democrats are making unusual exertions to get home their absent voters, and the Republicans in every town should take the most prompt and effective measures to secure the return of every absent Republican who can reach home to vote.

TILDEN'S LOYALTY.

[Washington Letter to N. Y. Times.]

In 1864, just after the battles of the Wilderness, a party of gentlemen were assembled in a room at Williard's, and in the course of an animated conversation, one of them used the following language: "Gentlemen, the mistake we made was that we did not then McClellan with his fine army on Washington AND CLEAN OUT THE WHOLE THING"—meaning the Administration of Mr. Lincoln. He who gave utterance to this patriotic remark was SAMUEL J. TILDEN!

NO IDEA OF BEING ELECTED.

The Boston Journal says that Charles Francis Adams pleasantly remarked, when informed of the action at Worcester, "that a nomination was not an election, and although he might accept the one, under the circumstances, he hardly felt that he would be called upon to assume again the duties and responsibilities of actual political life. Massachusetts, without doubt, is a Republican State, and it is a difficult thing for the majority of men to break party shackles, especially in a Presidential campaign."—Mr. Adams takes a very sensible view of the situation.

TELL THE DEMOCRAT WHO HOWLS ABOUT TAXATION THAT MORE THAN TWO-THIRDS OF THE STATE TAX IS REQUIRED ANNUALLY TO PAY THE INTEREST, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER LIABILITIES OF THE DEMOCRATIC REBELLION.

NO FREE SPEECH SOUTH. Mr. Norcross, the Republican candidate for Governor of Georgia, undertook to address a meeting at Augusta in that State Wednesday night, but was prevented by a mob on the ground of his being a Republican. The mob and its action were predetermined, with the object of preventing the presentation of Republican views. The fairness of any election in Georgia under this condition of affairs can readily be seen. [illegible]

A Leaf from the Record of Samuel J. Tilden.

STARTLING DISCLOSURES

AGAINST THE

POLITICAL ASSOCIATE OF BOSS TWEED.

[From the Brooklyn Argus.]

TILDEN'S CAREER.

How he made his Money.

A lawyer is privileged. He seldom gets caught, where laymen would find themselves in prison. Samuel J. Tilden is both a lawyer and a speculator. He inherited nothing, and is to be credited for his enterprise. He is now estimated to be worth from

FIVE TO TEN MILLION DOLLARS.

He made the majority of this large fortune by securing deeds of trusts of embarrassed railroads, mining properties, and land grants.

Improving upon the friendship, confidence, and ignorance of his clients, in many cases, he became the landlord, and the client became the petitioner.

In 1859 Tilden held One Thousand shares of the

CONTINENTAL IMPROVEMENT COMPANY,

at a cost to him of $50,000. The Company succeeded to the assets, without the obligation, of the Grand Rapids and Traverse Bay Railroad. A land grant of the franchise conveyed to the company or one-quarter more than is contained in the State of Rhode Island. Up to July, 1873, they had sold 90,443 acres, at $14.36 per acre—

1,116,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Amount received.	$1,405,000
Less expenses,	115,000
Net profit,	$1,290,000

They retained 1,021,000 acres, which, at the same price, is now worth $10,860,000.

Tilden and his associates refused to pay the taxes on this land. The State of Michigan was compelled to sue them in the Supreme Court of the United States. Judgment was of course obtained against the Ring; but the Ring had saved the interest on their taxes for over twelve years. In the mean time, adjoining farmers were compelled to pay Tilden's taxes on his land.

CURRENCY SWINDLES.

How the Government was cheated and Laborers Fleeced.

Before, it was Michigan that suffered by Tilden's Ring; this time it is the Government. In 1862 Tilden "did" Charles T. Harvey out of a large quantity of iron lands located on the Peninsula, near Marquette. This was Tilden's real start to wealth. Out of this property Tilden, and what is known as the "Iron Ring," established the Dunlap, the New York, the Iron Mine, the Michigan, the Jackson, the Tilden, the Ogden, and the Iron Cliff Mining Companies. On some of the poorer of these lands the Iron Ring issued false prospectuses, sold worthless stock at large prices, and swindled the "buyers" out of about

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Tilden kept hold of a majority of the stock of the Jackson, the Iron Cliff and the New York mines, and now has large gangs of men employed upon them.

In addition to mining and smelting ore, the Ring issued a fraudulent and illegal currency. The Banking Law exacts the payment of a tax of 1-10 of one per cent. on all currency issued. No one has a right to issue currency, except by making prescribed deposits with the Banking Department at Washington, and otherwise complying with the laws. Tilden's companies did not comply with the law in any respect. For eleven years they cheated the Government out of the taxes on millions of dollars of currency, and added to this crime the worse one of suborning Government agents. The currency was printed from steel plate engravings, in imitation of bank notes, and filled in at two, four, or six months. A $10 Iron Ring currency note, with only two months to run, was worth more than one of the same amount with six months to run. Of course the poor laborers were more and more crowded into taking notes at long time. The following is a miniature sample of a bill:

> [Ten Dollars.] [Ten Dollars.]
> OFFICE OF JACKSON IRON COMPANY,
> NEGAUNEE, Mich., Feb. 1, 1874.
> Four months after date, the Jackson Iron Company promises to pay to Henry Merey, or bearer, ten dollars.
> Payable at the Company's office, Negaunee, for value received. HENRY MEREY, Agent.

This currency was redeemable only in the wilderness. It had no value outside of the territory. The necessities of the miners compelled them to barter it away at large discounts. The stores of Wetmore and Tilden furnished the shears to do the fleecing.

[From the Chicago Tribune, August 17.]

"At the New York mine, the men were kept out of their wages for months. They were compelled to trade at the store controlled by TILDEN & WETMORE, and then they were charged enormous prices."

The profits to the Ring consisted in the interest saved; the shaves on due bills when redeemed before maturity; the advanced prices charged for goods sold, and on the taxes withheld from the Government. A larger amount of these bills were of course lost, and never presented for redemption. These were a clear gain. The illegitimate profits are estimated to have netted the ring $100,000 per annum, and for eleven years

AMOUNTED TO $1,100,000.

Of these illegal transactions the Brooklyn Argus recently said:

"Tilden is appealing to laboring men. He says that they must have plenty of work, good wages, and prompt pay. Let us see how he pays his laborers. Mr. Tilden has been, since 1863, the largest owner of the 'Jackson' and the 'New York' Iron Companies located on the Michigan Peninsula. He employs thousands of miners and laborers. When Saturday night came, did he pay them in 'hard money,' which he talks so much about? No. Did he pay them in greenbacks, for which he has such a contempt? No. How did he pay them? Why, with illegal 'currency,' manufactured by his own agents, due four months after date, and redeemed in merchandise at 100 per cent profit.

"Hemmed in by great lakes on the North and the East, by a wilderness on the South, and by Indians on the West, these hard laboring men were first swindled out of four months' interest, and then compelled to take an illegal currency, redeemable only in the woods, which was good for nothing when sent to their families at the East, and which could not be disposed of at the stores of the sharpers, in exchange for their hats, boots, clothes, tea and sugar, at tremendous shaves. Reduced to cash, these Laborers receive only about half price for their toil, while Tilden was raking in his millions."

TILDEN DARE NOT ENTER MICHIGAN.

[From the Chicago Tribune, August 17.]

"This is Tilden's record in Michigan, a "State which he dare not enter, lest he "should become amenable to legal pro-"ceedings upon numerous judgments en-"tered against him in the Courts."

ASKING THE COURTS TO PROTECT AN ILLEGAL BUSINESS.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, an influential Democratic newspaper, says that the Ring issued $100,000,000 of this bogus currency. In 1874, Peck, Crucial and Wheeler did a thriving business for a time, in counterfeiting it. They were indicted, but as it was no crime to counterfeit a "bogus" bill the complaint was dismissed, and Judge O'Grady said:

"The Court is clearly of the opinion that "the issue of all these notes and iron cur-"rency, (so called) IS ILLEGAL, CON-"TRARY TO THE STATUTE, and that "they are void upon their face. They bear "not only the ear-marks, but all the prin-"cipal features of a bank note, and are [illegible] the purpose of cir-[illegible] THEY CANNOT BE THE SUBJECT OF FORGERY; THEY ARE A SPURIOUS [illegible] BASTARD [illegible] samples of this "bogus" currency to Washington, and commenced legal proceedings against the ring. The penalties incurred amounted to over $1,000,000. The crime is

A STATE PRISON OFFENCE.

Following is the statute of punishment:

"NO PERSON, association, or body corporate, whether public or private, except "such bodies corporate as are or shall be "expressly authorized by law to do a reg-"ular banking business and to issue bank "bills,' shall issue any bills, notes, due-bills, "drafts, or other evidences of debt in the "similitude of bank bills, or to be loaned "or put in circulation as money, or to pass "or to be used as a currency or circulating "medium; and every PERSON AND EV-"ERY MEMBER OF SUCH CORPORA-"TION who shall violate the provisions of "this section shall be punished by IM-"PRISONMENT IN THE STATE PRIS-"ON not more than three years, or in the "County Jail not more than one year, or by "fine not exceeding $1,000, or both, in the "discretion of the Court; and any such "corporation shall thereby forfeit all its "corporate rights and privileges."

The counterfeiting and the terrors of the law put an end to the "bogues" currency business. But the "Ring" still had to fight or be imprisoned. They secured a stay of proceedings on one pretence and another, until they smuggled a "Relief" bill through Congress.

TILDEN'S RELIEF BILL.

"An Act to authorize the Secretary of the "Treasury to adjust and REMIT CER-"TAIN TAXES AND PENALTIES "claimed to be due from mining and oth-"er corporations.

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of "Representatives of the United States of "North America, in Congress assembled. "That the Secretary of the Treasury be, "and he is hereby authorized and directed "to SETTLE AND RELEASE any claims "for taxes on circulation of evidences of "indebtedness made against any mining, "manufacturing or other corporations, "WITHOUT PENALTY," &c.

"A true copy from a copy certified by "the Chief Clerk of the Department of "State.

"J. W. DOUGLASS,
"Commissioner of Internal Revenue."

Tilden's "taxes and penalties," remitted by this Act, are said to have amounted to $2,000,000.

Bring Out the Voters!

We urge upon the active Republicans of the various towns the great importance of organized measures for bringing out the full Republican vote. The number of our voters who fail from one cause or another to reach the polls, forms in the aggregate a large percentage and materially affects the result. It is important that teams should be provided and energetic men designated to bring up the distant and tardy voters. We want to add every possible vote to our majority next Monday.

And now for Maine. Let her follow the example of the Green Mountain State, and roll on the ball for reform and liberty throughout all the land!—Boston Journal.

Tilden is declared President by the two Houses of Congress in February next, his advancement will be due to a usurpation as unscrupulous and as bloody as that by which Napoleon III. passed from the Presidency of France to the throne and title of Emperor of the French."—*Hon. A Large Republican Meeting addressed by Secretary Morrill and a Former Democrat.

A Republican meeting this evening was addressed by Dudley L. Moor, of Virginia formerly a Democrat of Waterville, and Hon. Lot M. Morrill, Secretary of the Treasury. Mr. Moor confined his remarks to the condition of the South as observed by himself. Mr. Morrill disclaimed all personalities or desire to "flaunt the bloody shirt," but produced facts and figures to show the financial condition of the country when the Republican party came into power, 15 years ago, finding it bankrupt, and its condition to-day, when its securities are solicitously sought in the great money markets of the world. Notwithstanding the heavy rain the meeting was largely attended and enthusiastic.

Gain of Twenty-Eight Members of the Legislature.

THE INDIAN WAR.

From Terry's Command—No Signs of the Indians.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. A despatch dated Terry's Camp on Deer Creek, Aug. 20th, says after crossing the Yellowstone, they have failed to discover any signs of the Indians. If the Indians in any large bodies have crossed the Yellowstone, they must have done so further east. Terry was waiting news by courier from Crook, expected every hour, and future movements depend entirely whether Crook has found any Indian trails. There is every probability that no Indians will be met in the campaign. A letter from the

Brule Indian Agency

Dakota, says a large number of Indians have appeared near the Cheyenne Agency at Fort Sully from the hostile camps, but being told that they would be discovered and shot by the soldiers, they have kept away. Only one Indian up to Sept. 1st, had surrendered himself and given up his arms. The returned hostiles report they get ammunition from a place near Spotted Tail Agency, on the White River and that they have abundance of arms and ammunition and are en route for a great battle, but do not want to fight both Crook and Terry combined, not doubting a victory, but reluctant to lose so many warriors.

Sitting Bull Don't Want Peace.

There are about 5,500 warriors in the field and those who leave are more than replaced by acquisitions.

Sitting Bull and chiefs do not want peace, will fight it out and will let the settlements hear from them when the troops are withdrawn, especially in towns in the Black Hills.

A large number of so-called peaceable Indians are leaving Cheyenne Agencies, taking the wives and families of warriors who are with them and drawing rations for them as their own. They go to the Brule agencies below.

The Proposed Disarming

After Standing Rock, Cheyenne and Lower Brule agencies are fully garrisoned which will be shortly, it is believed the proposed disarming of Indians will be undertaken. It is thought this will lead to a bloody struggle, as the Indians will not trust themselves with the whites without arms.

Thirty soldiers from Fort Sully, recovered a few horses which were stolen from miners in the Black Hills. On reaching Crook City the miners wanted to kill the Indian guide, saying there were 540 more horses due which the Indians had stolen. A murder had been committed before the troops arrived and Crook City was full of drunken men.

MINNESOTA.

Robbers Pursued.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 8. Report has been received here that a posse of citizens who were pursuing the robbers that raided on Northfield yesterday overtook them last night and wounded one of them, when they escaped through the woods. Pursuit was continued. No particulars.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Riot at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 8. All night the colored militia and white clubs remained at their places of rendezvous under arms, but the night wore away without any serious collision. A party of blacks fired into the windows of the Montgomery Guards and the fire was returned. Excepting this and one or two other minor disturbances, the streets were quiet after midnight. Public feeling continues one of great uneasiness. The blacks talk of having a torchlight procession to-night and efforts are making to prevent it, as trouble will probably grow out of it. By the intervention of Congressman Small, the Combahee strikers have been induced to disperse without further molestation of those laborers who continue to work in rice fields.

An Armistice Refused.

LONDON, Sept. 8. A despatch from Berlin says the Powers are still endeavoring to induce the Porte to reconsider his resolution verbally expressed, refusing an armistice. The Porte's written reply is expected shortly. It is stated that the Porte earnestly desires peace, and disclaims any intention to make exorbitant demands.

The Servians Prefer War.

A despatch to Reuter's Company from Belgrade says the Servians still hold Alexinatz. Gen. Tchernajeff is sending troops and artillery there from Delgrade. The Turks have halted near Alexinatz, between Adrovitz and Petarliovaz, apprehending an attack from Gen. Horvatovich. No news received here respecting peace negotiations. The Servians would prefer a continuation of the war to the humiliating conditions of peace.

THE REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

Large Attendance—The Utmost Harmony and Enthusiasm—A Good, Strong Ticket Nominated—The City Committee, Speeches, etc.

Any one who was out of doors last evening was sensibly reminded that the weather was disagreeable, and that the streets were horribly muddy, but this did not deter the Republican voters of Bangor from turning out in force to attend the Caucus for the nomination of candidates for Representatives to the next Legislature, and the house was well filled on the floor and in the galleries.

One who looked over the faces of those composing the assembly could not fail to notice that our young and old, intelligent and earnest citizens were present, that the old Republican enthusiasm has no whit abated, and that an earnest effort will be put forth to ensure that success which the party so well deserves at the hands of the honest, thinking people of this city.

At the appointed hour C. B. Wyman, Esq., member of the City Committee, called the Caucus to order, read the call, and nominated Hon. Newell Blake, Chairman, Mr. Blake came forward, and in a few, well chosen remarks, announced himself ready to proceed to business. W. P. Hubbard, Esq., was chosen Secretary. On motion, a committee of one from each ward, consisting of the following gentlemen, were appointed to receive, sort and count votes for candidates. J. W. Palmer, I. W. Coombs, J. N. Downe, W. F. Brann, S. P. Bredbury and E. G. Wyman.

L. H. Eaton, Esq., submitted a motion to renominate Hon. E. B. Nealley, our popular Representative in the last Legislature by acclamation.

John S. Kimball, moved to amend by adding the names of Lysander Strickland and Wm. P. Hubbard, and on a vote being taken the amendment was lost.

Mr. Eaton's motion was adopted and Mr. Nealley was re-nominated as the first candidate for Representative.

Mr. Hubbard rose at this point and thanking the party for the nomination he received at its hands last year, withdrew his name for re-nomination, as his business would not admit of his accepting it.

On motion the caucus proceeded to ballot for a second candidate, which though occupying some time, owing to the number present, passed off quietly and as soon as the committee could make the count, the chairman announced the result as follows:

Whole number of ballots,	528
Necessary to a choice,	265
Lysander Strickland had	268
Joseph F. Snow had	229
Scattering,	31

and Lysander Strickland was declared the nominee as second on the ticket.

A ballot for a third candidate was next proceeded with and the result was announced as follows:

Whole number of votes,	628
Necessary to a choice,	315
Henry Lord had	369
Joseph F. Snow had	250
Scattering,	9

and Mr. Lord was declared the third nominee.

As soon as the ballot was declared, Mr. Snow came forward and moved that it be made unanimous, which was done.

On motion, the chairman appointed the following gentlemen a committee to nominate a City Committee: C. A. Boutelle, James Mayhew, David Costellow, G. W. Whitney, N. C. Ayer, L. J. Morse, and D. P. Wingate.

Loud calls were then made for Mr. Nealley, who came forward amid the cheers of the assembly and in a very handsomely made speech accepted the nomination given him by so large a caucus of his fellow citizens. He emphatically pledged his earnest endeavors to serve the people of the city in the coming Legislature to the best of his ability and to consider their own and the best interests of the State in whatever action might devolve upon him. Mr. Nealley's earnest remarks were applauded to the echo.

Hon. Lysander Strickland was next called for, and briefly addressed the assembly pledging his best endeavors to serve his fellow citizens, if elected, to the best of his ability. Mr. Strickland's words drew out a ringing round of applause.

Henry Lord, Esq., the third nominee, came forward at the call of and amid the applause of the caucus. He briefly thanked the assembly for the honor conferred upon him, and pledged his services for their best interests.

Loud calls were made for Joseph F. Snow, Esq., who was received with rounds of applause, as he took the platform Mr. Snow, in a brief, but thrilling speech, endorsed the nomination. His remarks rang with the true Republican spirit which characterizes him and they were loudly applauded.

At the conclusion of Mr. Snow's remarks the following gentlemen were nominated and elected as the Republican City Committee for the ensuing year:

Ward I.	Frank D. Pullen.
Ward II.	Henry D. Williams.
Ward III.	James Woodbury.
Ward IV.	George A. Davenport.
Ward V.	Charles R. Getchell.
Ward VI.	Hermon Bartlett.
Ward VII.	Benjamin B. Thatcher.

This completed the business for which the caucus was called, and on motion, the assembly adjourned sine die.

THE CAMPAIGN.

ROUSING RALLY AT RICHMOND.

[For the Whig and Courier.]

One of the largest and most enthusiastic Republican meetings of the campaign was held at Richmond, on the Maine Central Road, on Wednesday evening, the large hall at that place being crowded in its every part and hundreds standing. In the audience were the old and young, the rich and poor, the ladies being out in force. The Hon. J. B. Rooney, of Philadelphia, was first introduced and made a powerful address eliciting frequent applause. He was succeeded by the young orator of the South, Col. A. Worth Spates, of Baltimore, in a speech of matchless eloquence which aroused the audience to the highest pitch. At the close of the speaking the audience gave the speakers three rousing cheers at his conclusion. The meeting was on the whole a great success and will be heard from in old Richmond next Monday.

BREWER VILLAGE.

Thursday Evening's Demonstration.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

Your correspondent in his report of the flag raising at Brewer Village, omitted to state that the residences of most of the citizens were illuminated. The residence of D. Sargent was in a blaze of light, Mrs. Benjamin Goodwin's residence was decorated with flags and lights, H. P. Sargent's house and grounds were illuminated with colored lights and with Hayes and Wheeler mottoes. Capt. Jos. S. Kent's residence was finely lighted, as also the Post Office and store of Capt. D. Shedd, where the flag was raised. The boarding house of D. Sargent & Sons', on the island was lighted from floor to attic, which, with the bonfire near by, made a fine appearance. Everything connected with the rally went of with eclat. The promptness with which the citizens responded on such short notice, shows that the Republican spirit is wide awake in Brewer. The thanks of the citizens are due the Hon. Charles Hamlin for his kindness in procuring so able and eloquent a speaker as ex-Gov. E. F. Noyes, of Ohio. The meeting house was packed, and as many went away unable to get in as the house held.

SPECTATOR.

SENATOR HAMLIN AT DIXMONT.

A ROUSING REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Republicans of Dixmont assembled at the church Thursday afternoon to listen to Senator Hamlin. The building was decorated with flags and a large and enthusiastic audience was present. The venerable Senator was conducted to the church by an escort of many citizens, amid lively martial music. Amos Whitney called the meeting to order and D. G. Clary to the chair; Dr. A. E. Farnham was appointed Secretary. Mr. Clary in a brief speech introduced Senator Hamlin, who came forward amid loud applause. He began his speech by stating the great and grand principles of the Republican party. The results of the war would be forever lost if the Democrats came into power. The Democratic party caused the war. The Republican party abolished slavery and dedicated the broad country to liberty and to God. The Democrats opposed every amendment to the Constitution. The head and brains of the Democratic party is in the South and its tail in the North. He spoke of the late Congress, how it had turned loyal soldiers from the Capitol who were made cripples by the war. The Democratic party made up their committees from Southern men. They have crippled our industries by reducing the appropriations and now come before the people with a lie. They have not reduced taxation one cent or lightened the burdens of the people. The specie question was discussed in an able and lucid manner. Mr. Hamlin deplored the fast-living habits and great corporations, and said hard times were in part caused by them. He closed by an earnest appeal for the citizens to support Hayes and Wheeler. His speech was nearly two hours in length, and was an able, sensible argument. The people were much pleased and gave three cheers for Senator Hamlin, three more for Hayes and Wheeler and the other Republican candidates. Look out for a good report from Dixmont.

The Misdirection of the Bile.

The misdirection of the bile, a consequence which ensues when the liver is inactive and the bowels torpid, produces a number of bodily evils. The blood becomes contaminated with the bilious fluid, causing the skin and the whites of the eyes to assume a yellowish tinge; dyspepsia and nausea supervene, the tongue becomes furred, the breath fœtid, there are pains in the side and between the shoulder blades, the urine is high colored and scalding, and in aggravated cases jaundice and inflammation of the liver ensue. All these consequences may be prevented or obviated by using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a vegetable alterative tonic which stimulates the inactive liver to exert itself in secreting and directing the bile, acts naturally upon the bowels and removes every trace of indigestion. eod&w1w sep9

The cost of running this MOTOR is only for the consumption of water while the motor is in use.

We are ready to make contracts for furnishing Motors set ready for use and guarantee their work [illegible] to the conditions agreed upon.

CHILDREN TEETHING.

MRS. WINSLOW'S

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov. 18, 1875.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness. While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness. I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful; and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

WM. B. HILL,

Police Station 4.

CANNOT BE EXCELLED.

CHARLESTOWN, March 19, 1869.

H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir. This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and I think that for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled; and as a Blood Purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully,

MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell St.
